FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

“Shannon Smith Attends Hugh Obrien Youth Leadership Seminar”

South Fayette Township, PA – South Fayette Student Government member Shannon Smith attended a seminar at Washington and Jefferson College sponsored by the Hugh O’Brian Youth Leadership (HOBY) Foundation. A nationally known program, HOBY allows schools to nominate one student that has just completed their sophomore year to attend their workshop.

This is the second year the South Fayette Student Government has sent a representative to the program. Last year Amanda Walasik attended, and she is now a regional representative for HOBY. While attending the program, Shannon stayed on the W&J campus and participated in HOBY’s programs, which included an opportunity to speak to US servicemen serving in Iraq via videophone.
