Financial Aid Night at South Fayette

South Fayette Township, PA – South Fayette High School's Guidance Department is sponsoring a Financial Aid Program at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 12, 2005, in the high school theatre. This program is geared toward all students interested in or planning on attending a post-secondary school following graduation. Parents and their students interested in college, trade or technical schools, or other types of proprietary schools should plan to attend this informative event.

Ms. Marian Hargrave, representative from the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) will be the guest speaker. Ms. Hargrave will discuss the many financial aid programs available to our students, such as: Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, Federal Subsidized/Unsubsidized Stafford Loans, Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Work Study, Title VII and Public Health Act Programs, and State Grants/Loans. In addition, she will highlight many miscellaneous scholarship opportunities available from civic clubs, professional organizations, labor unions and private businesses.
