FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 7, 2005

South Fayette Township, PA – February was National Children’s Dental Health Month and to mark the event, South Fayette Elementary School third graders participated in a poster contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Dental Association.

One first place winner was selected from each of the seven third grade classes. Winners were David Truman, Carrie Ann Torre, Brianna Hudock, Alyssa Jessloski, Rosa Rocchino, Nicole Molinaro and Christina Famularo. Each winner received a certificate and a prize bag with dental hygiene items furnished by the South Fayette PTA.

The poster entries were judged on neatness, creativity, dental health/hygiene theme and overall appearance. Mrs. Gail Manko, the school nurse, coordinated the third grade poster contest and presented students with a lesson on oral health and hygiene. The posters have been forwarded to a local division for judging.
