You must send in a new application unless the school told you that your child is eligible for the new school year. Child's application is good for the current school year and for the first 30 school days of the next school year.

6. My child's application was approved last year. Do I need to fill out a new one? Yes, your child's application is good for the current school year only.

3. How do I know if my child is eligible for free or reduced price meals?

Children who are in households of those living below the federal poverty level or who receive or reduced-price assistance at school are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. The federal poverty level is a guideline for determining eligibility. Children who do not qualify for either may purchase meals at full price.

4. Can I apply online? Yes. You are encouraged to complete an online application instead of a paper application if you have internet access.

5. Where do I apply? You can apply online at www.southfayette.org or at the child's school entry office. If you do not have internet access, you can complete a paper application at the school entry office or by contacting the district office. If you need help filling out the application, you can call 724-693-3019 or email mhsen@sfisd.org.

2. How do I know if my child is eligible for free or reduced price meals?

Children who are in households of those living below the federal poverty level or who receive or reduced-price assistance at school are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. The federal poverty level is a guideline for determining eligibility. Children who do not qualify for either may purchase meals at full price.

1. How can I get free or reduced price meals?

If you receive a notice of direct certification in the mail from the school district or have been told by the school that your child is eligible for free or reduced-price meals, do not complete the application. If you have not received a notice of direct certification, you must fill out an application for free or reduced-price meals. Below are some common questions and answers to help you with the application process.

Federal guidelines dictate that all children in households of those living below the federal poverty level or who receive or reduced-price assistance at school are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. The federal poverty level is a guideline for determining eligibility. Children who do not qualify for either may purchase meals at full price.
